Pop up tent city to cater for Cooktown Expo 2020 accommodation overflow

December 2, 2019
COOKTOWN

A camping village will be set up in Cooktown to cater for the influx of visitors expected to overflow from the town's accommodation providers over the three week Cooktown Expo 2020 event from July to August next year.

Tent City offers single, twin and triple-share tents, with camping stretchers, bed linen, tables and chairs and a camp kitchen. The company has operated at numerous large events, including Splendour In The Grass, Bathurst 1000, Woodford Folk Festival and the Tamworth Country Music Festival. The camping village will be within walking distance of the festival, Cook Shire Council Expo 2020 Festival Producer Merryn Hughes said.

"It's just like a motel, people can arrive here by plane or car with just their toothbrush and check in to their tent village," Ms Hughes said. "Many accommodation options are already fully booked for Expo 2020, and Tent City is a great option to cater for the overflow."

Cooktown Expo 2020 is proudly funded by the Queensland Government in conjunction with Cook Shire Council.
