THE OPPORTUNITY

Cook Shire Council is seeking highly motivated and community minded candidates to play key roles in Council's events team for the upcoming Cooktown 2020 Festival.

This is an exciting opportunity to be part of this landmark event which will take place over seven weeks on Cape York Peninsula. In the lead to up to the event we will need to call on people to work on a casual basis to support the operational side of the Festival.

Cook Shire Council is showcasing our community, unity, diversity and Indigenous and non Indigenous heritage, to mark the 250th anniversary of the first interaction and historic reconciliation between James Cook and the Traditional Owners.

WHO WE NEED

We are looking for people with the following skills:

- Administration
- Project Management
- Contracts and Insurance
- Operations
- Event Management
- Venue Management
- Arts and Culture Programs

These roles are integral to Council's desire to attract national and international audiences.
