

COOK SHIRE BUSINESS SECURITY UPGRADE PROGRAM GUIDELINES

This one-off opportunity is provided to eligible local businesses and organisations in Cook Shire, to support local businesses with the costs of conducting security upgrades to business premises. Businesses and organisations are invited to submit a request for an investment to increase their security and resiliency from crime and to future-proof their operations. Council investment 50% - up to $2,500 per business or organisation, with a minimum 50% co-contribution from the business or organisation.

Key objectives of this initiative are to provide assistance to local businesses/organisations by:

- Encouraging businesses to implement strategies that identify and mitigate security risks through assessments and security consultations;
- Providing opportunities for the purchase of equipment to complete premises upgrades that reduce the risk of crime and enhance the visible presence of security measures;
- Promoting the long-term sustainability of security by updating current security measures;
- Encourage the adoption of updated security technologies and practices to stay ahead of evolving security risks.
