MEDIA RELEASE

Call for images to celebrate 100 years of Council

October 15, 2018
COOKTOWN

Cook Shire Council is turning 100 in January 2019, and as part of the celebrations we want to share images from our 100 years of service.

Council was formed in 1919, and Council is seeking images from then until now, which showcase everything that Council has been involved in, including our towns and communities, facilities such as libraries, pools, playgrounds and halls, staff, road works and community events. "We have some amazing images in our records, but I'm sure there are some other images out there which may never have been seen by the wider community and we would love to be able to share them during our Centenary celebration," Cook Shire Mayor Peter Scott said. The images will be on display at the 2019 Cook Shire Australia Day Awards and will be included in a coffee table book to be printed next year.

Images can be emailed to Council, or hard copies can be posted or taken to Council and will be scanned and returned. The Cooktown History Centre on Charlotte Street can also scan hard copy images and pass them on to Council. The History Centre is at 121 Charlotte Street, and is open 9am to 3pm Monday to Saturday.

For more information or to submit an image contact Council's Tourism and Events team via email at mail@cook.qld.gov.au or phone on 4069 5444.
