

STALLHOLDERS WANTED!

LAST CHANCE TO BE PART OF THE WATERFRONT OPENING EVENT!

Cook Shire Council is seeking stall holders to be a part of the Cooktown Waterfront Official Opening event. Sites are free, however all stalls must apply. If a food permit is required, a fee is applicable. Cook Shire residents will be given preference.

The Waterfront Opening will be held at the Webber Esplanade foreshore precinct from 3pm-9pm on Saturday, November 17 2018. Food, non alcoholic drinks, fundraising, service organisations, information tents and retail stalls are encouraged to apply.

Expressions of interest should be sent to Council, attention to the Environmental Health Officer at mail@cook.qld.gov.au or posted to PO Box 3, Cooktown, 4895 by 29 October 2018. Successful stallholders will be notified by November 2, and will be allocated a stall space by Council.

Responses must include a short description of goods to be sold, if power is required, stall size, if proceeds are for a not for profit and any additional information that may be relevant.

For more information contact Council's Environmental Health Officer by email at mail@cook.qld.gov.au or phone on 4069 5444.
