Proposal

This development application seeks approval for a Material Change of Use for a Tourist Park accommodating up to 74 guests at any one time on Lot 231 on BK15737. The development is intended to support low-impact, self-contained camping and recreational stays with an emphasis on environmental sustainability and responsible tourism.

The park will cater to self-contained vehicles and campers. The sites will not be connected to reticulated infrastructure. Campers are expected to be self-sufficient, bringing their own water and managing their own waste, with oversight and site inspections by the operator to ensure compliance.

Any rubbish left behind by guests will be removed by site management, and regular inspections will be conducted to maintain cleanliness and amenity.

Lot 231 is located on Barretts Creek Road along the eastern boundary and shares its southern, western, and northern boundaries with the Hope Vale Shire Council. The property is situated approximately 3 km from Cooktown Airport and 15 km by road from the centre of Cooktown.

The 160-acre property offers ample space for multiple large, private, and secluded campsites, as well as shared communal areas that highlight the site's natural beauty and points of interest. The land is relatively flat, with gentle undulations around waterways and dams and is predominantly covered in natural vegetation.

The campground is proposed to operate from 1 May to 31 October, weather permitting. During prolonged periods of heavy rainfall, the park will close to prevent site damage from heavy vehicles.

Located within the Rural Zone, the site boasts abundant bird and wildlife, a meandering creek with extensive tributaries, and waterways adorned with waterlilies and freshwater species, framed by paperbarks and rainforest vegetation.

PLANNING SCHEME

Cook Shire Planning Scheme 2017 – Version 2.0

The proposed development aligns with the strategic outcomes of the Cook Shire Planning Scheme 2017 v2.0 by helping to grow tourism and increase visitor nights while protecting natural assets and diversifying visitor experience.

The proposed use is considered impact assessable under the Rural Zone Code due to the scale of the development accommodating up to 74 guests. The following assessment benchmarks apply:

Rural Zone Code

Tourist Park Code (Table 5.5.22)

RURAL ZONE CODE RESPONSE

The proposed development is consistent with the purpose and overall outcomes of the Rural Zone under the Cook Shire Planning Scheme 2017. It facilitates a low-impact, compatible land use that preserves the rural character, supports the natural environment, and promotes economic diversification within the region.

The tourist park will operate in harmony with the site's rural setting by offering eco-friendly, self-contained camping opportunities that provide visitors with access to the Shire's unique natural landscapes. The development enhances the amenity and lifestyle of the surrounding area by showcasing an undeveloped, nature-based environment in close proximity to Cooktown, without compromising the visual or environmental values of the site.

The rural character is retained through careful site planning and low-scale infrastructure. Camp sites are sited to be visually unobtrusive from neighbouring properties and Barretts Creek Road, and no clearing of significant vegetation is proposed. Environmental integrity is further supported through measures such as rotational site use, visitor self-sufficiency, and minimal service demands.

Importantly, the proposal advances the Planning Scheme's strategic outcomes by:

- Encouraging nature-based tourism and enhancing the visitor experience;
- Supporting longer visitor stays in the region;
- Creating opportunities for local economic development in alignment with rural land values.

The use of Lot 231 for tourism is compatible with, and does not preclude, other rural activities. The site's long-term vision includes complementary uses such as native freshwater aquaculture and a native species educational display, which will further reinforce the land's value for both agricultural and environmental purposes. Appropriate licences and approvals for these future ventures are being pursued through the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries.

Overall, the development strikes a balance between tourism growth and rural land stewardship, aligning with both the intent of the Rural Zone and the broader strategic framework of the Planning Scheme.

BUSHFIRE HAZARD OVERLAY RESPONSE

The Bushfire Hazard Overlay identifies the majority of Lot 231 as being subject to medium bushfire potential. The development has been designed to appropriately respond to this risk through strategic site layout, natural firebreaks, and robust management procedures.

Natural and Constructed Buffers:

- Barretts Creek, which bisects the property, serves as a natural green buffer, reducing the potential for bushfire spread between the northern and southern portions of the site.
- Barretts Creek Road, located along the eastern boundary, acts as an additional firebreak and provides safe egress and access for emergency vehicles.
- Existing access tracks along the southern boundary and part of the western boundary function as supplementary firebreaks, providing both separation and access for fire response.

Emergency Access: All internal access tracks will be maintained throughout the park's operating period to ensure continuous access for emergency service vehicles. These routes will be kept clear of overgrowth and debris as part of regular property management.

Bushfire Management Plan

A Bushfire Management Plan will be implemented as part of park operations, including the following key measures:

- Early Evacuation Protocol: All guests will be required to evacuate the site if a bushfire threat is identified within the general vicinity. This requirement will be clearly communicated upon arrival and included in guest information materials.
- Low Infrastructure Risk: The camping areas themselves will not contain fixed or vulnerable infrastructure. This reduces the risk to life and property and simplifies evacuation procedures.
- Vegetation Management: Regular maintenance, including slashing and fuel load management, will be undertaken to reduce bushfire risk within the developed areas of the property.
- Perimeter Protection: Existing infrastructure located away from the camping areas will be protected through controlled hazard reduction burns, undertaken in accordance with best practices and with relevant approvals where necessary.

BIODIVERSITY OVERLAY

The subject site contains areas designated under the Biodiversity Overlay of the Cook Shire Planning Scheme as State Environmental Areas, comprising regulated vegetation, essential habitat, and Category B vegetation. The proposed development has been carefully designed to avoid adverse impacts on these ecologically significant areas and to support long-term conservation outcomes.

Site Design and Setbacks: To protect sensitive vegetation and habitats, all campsites will be located a minimum of 20 metres from identified environmental values, including remnant vegetation, essential habitat zones, and riparian areas. This buffer ensures minimal disturbance to flora and fauna and supports the preservation of ecological processes.

Access and Low Impact Infrastructure:

- Campsite access and associated tracks will remain unformed and natural, avoiding soil compaction and vegetation clearance. These will be regularly monitored for erosion and environmental degradation.
- Rotational use of campsites will be implemented to mitigate landform disturbance, allow natural regeneration, and reduce pressure on any one area.
- A carefully planned network of walking trails will provide guests with controlled access to experience the site's natural features without degrading environmental values.

Camp Areas and Environmental Characteristics:

- Camp Areas A and B are located in open sclerophyll forest near two man-made dams, which connect seasonally to Barretts Creek. These water bodies support native aquatic species such as perch and cherabin. Campsites in these areas will be set back from the water's edge to:
 - Prevent runoff and protect water quality,
 - Minimise disturbance to aquatic ecosystems,
 - Preserve the integrity of the surrounding habitat.

Open grassed areas adjacent to these dams will remain accessible for recreation but will not be designated for camping, preserving their ecological function.

- Camp Area C contains a mix of dense regrowth and closed sclerophyll forest, providing a secluded and immersive natural experience. This area offers direct access to a series of walking tracks that follow Barretts Creek and its tributaries, leading to natural ponds and riparian corridors. The layout has been designed to maximise privacy while safeguarding ecological values.

PARKING, ACCESS, AND SERVICING

The proposed development has been designed to operate in a self-contained, low-impact manner, consistent with the rural character of the area and the absence of urban infrastructure.

Access

- Access to the site is provided via an existing gravel driveway from Barretts Creek Road.

- Internal access will consist of unformed tracks appropriate for the flat terrain, helping to minimise environmental disturbance and soil compaction.
- These tracks cannot be maintained during the wet season, and as such, the tourist park will not operate during that period. This ensures safety for guests and prevents unnecessary damage to the landscape.
- During the operational period, internal tracks will be maintained in a trafficable condition and will support safe vehicle movement throughout the site. Selected campsites will feature drive-through layouts to improve accessibility and circulation.

Parking

- On-site parking will be provided at each designated campsite, sufficient for at least one vehicle per site. No roadside parking will be required or permitted.

Servicing and Utilities

- Reticulated Services: Lot 231 is not connected to reticulated water, sewerage, or the electrical grid.
- Water Supply: Guests will be required to bring their own potable water. No water will be supplied on site.
- Sewerage: Guests must use self-contained on-board or portable toilet systems. There will be no effluent or greywater disposal facilities on site.
- Electricity: No powered sites will be provided. Guests will need to be self-sufficient with regard to power, using low-impact sources such as solar or battery systems.
- Waste Management: All waste, including rubbish and greywater, must be removed by guests upon departure. The site manager will conduct routine inspections to ensure compliance and remove any leftover waste.

SITE PLAN

Pink denotes designated campground areas.

Green denotes main access road from Barretts Creek Road to check-in parking zone.

Light Blue denotes inner access tracks to camping areas A and B.

Note - Tracks to camping area C are yet to be determined.
